

Juróomeelu nettali bi- Cosaanu Ndombo (extract from Contes et Mythes Wolof, Kesteloot et Mbodj, 1983)

I. Tekki bi :

ànd: to accompany, to go with	Rab : animal or spirit
àndandoo : companion	Sëy : mariage
Bokk : to have in common, to share	Sottal : to finish
Buur : king	Santale : to give a last name
Doxantu : to walk, to take a walk	Tàkku : edge
Dex : river	Taatu daqaar : shadow of the tamarind
Dimbali : to help	Taxan : to pick firewood up
Ĕmb : to be pregnant	Toxu : to move out
Fas g- : talisman	Tàyyi : to be tired
Fexe : to find a way	Tuur : shrine
Fekksi : to join	Teew : to be present, to attend
Giir : dynasty	Weer : month
Gungé : to walk back	Wasin : to give birth
Jaljale : pain	Wurus : gold
Jekki : to wait	Waajal : to get ready
Liir : infant	Wooteeji : to go call
Maye : to give	Xam-xam : knowledge
Mat : symptoms of labor (pregnancy)	Yóbbu : to take somebody
Moroom : peer	Yaakaar : « to believe »
Mboole m-: group (of people)	Yërëm : to have pity
Nàyyi : to stretch (one's legs)	Yilif : to lead, to command
Ngénté : to give a name	Yéré : clothes
Ndombo : amulet, charm
Ngalla : « please »

